

Fill in the gaps with one or two appropriate words.

..... is the most beautiful period of the year. Because it takes place in the wintertime there is always freezing outside and on the roofs appear This special time is usually spent among and beloved ones. Preparations before are for most of them accurate and take a lot of time. On the people decorate Christmas tree with and The fireplace is also ornamented with flowers of and On the of the fireplace people hang for each member of the family. Santa comes early in the morning on the He brings for everyone. It is believed that comes in every house through the In GB people eat and as Christmas dishes and people in US drink The go to each and every house singing beautiful Children don't have to go to school because they have several days of

Fill in the gaps with one or two appropriate words.

..... is the most beautiful period of the year. Because it takes place in the wintertime there is always freezing outside and on the roofs appear This special time is usually spent among and beloved ones. Preparations before are for most of them accurate and take a lot of time. On the people decorate Christmas tree with and The fireplace is also ornamented with flowers of and On the of the fireplace people hang for each member of the family. Santa comes early in the morning on the He brings for everyone. It is believed that comes in every house through the In GB people eat and as Christmas dishes and people in US drink The go to each and every house singing beautiful Children don't have to go to school because they have several days of

Fill in the gaps with one or two appropriate words.

..... is the most beautiful period of the year. Because it takes place in the wintertime there is always freezing outside and on the roofs appear This special time is usually spent among and beloved ones. Preparations before are for most of them accurate and take a lot of time. On the people decorate Christmas tree with and The fireplace is also ornamented with flowers of and On the of the fireplace people hang for each member of the family. Santa comes early in the morning on the He brings for everyone. It is believed that comes in every house through the In GB people eat and as Christmas dishes and people in US drink The go to each and every house singing beautiful Children don't have to go to school because they have several days of