Unit Four Worksheet - Chpt's 11, 12 &14

Multiple Choice

Identify	the	choice	that l	hest	comp	letes	the	statement	OT	answers	the c	mestion
Tucititi)

 1.	Taking anabolic steroids to look more muscular is an example of: a. drug misuse b. drug abuse
 2.	 c. habituation d. antabuse Placing inhalants in a bag, putting the bag over the mouth and nose, and taking deep breaths describes: a. puffing b. snorting c. sniffing
 3.	d. huffing When taking drugs, the most common method is: a. inhaling b. subcutaneous injection c. orally
 4.	d. intravenous injection Subcutaneous injection refers to a person: a. sniffing into the nostrils b. inserting a needle into a vein c. inserting a needle deep into a muscle
 5.	 d. injecting drugs just beneath the skin What seems to be the dosage at which a drug become poisonous to the body? a. tolerance level b. set point c. potentiating level
 6.	 d. toxicity When an individual has a mindset or perceptions about using a drug, the person is said to have: a. enabling factors to hasten the use of illegal drugs b. drug knowledge to prevent abuse of chemicals. c. preconceptions about using a drug d. a tolerance level to handle drugs without adverse affects
 7.	When you buy medicine at a pharmacy without a doctor's prescription, you are buying: a. unsafe medicines because they have not been approved by your doctor b. over-the-counter medicines c. ineffective drugs d. cheap herbal remedies
 8.	All of the following are over-the-counter medications that are often misused EXCEPT: a. aspirin b. eye drops c. laxatives
 9.	 d. nasal sprays All of the following are true statements concerning generic drugs EXCEPT: a. Generic drugs are less expensive than brand name drugs. b. Generic drugs are just as effective as brand name drugs in treating seizures.