Dear Ms Smith

I am writing to enquire about any job openings you may have for someone with my experience and qualifications. I worked for six years as a software engineer for McQ Corp, and I have extensive training and experience related to software development.

I have enclosed a copy of my CV. I would appreciate an opportunity to speak with you regarding any openings you may have or any consulting work your company requires. I would be grateful if you could send me more information about your company and the surrounding area.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Steve Wax
