The hardest thing to do in the world

by Michael Rosen

to stand in the hot sun at the end of a long line for ice cream watching all the people who've just bought theirs coming away from the line giving them ice cream their very first lick.

Hey Diddle, Diddle

by Michael Rosen

Hey diddle, diddle,
The cat and the fiddle,
The cow jumped over the moon,
The little dog laughed
To see such fun,
And the dish ran away with the spoon.

Write a last line for this rhyme, or make up your own silly nursery rhyme.

Humpty Dumpty had a great fall.
All the king's horses
And all the king's men
