

THE SINGERS' AND DANCERS' PLAY (Scene 27)

Narrator 1: There is a woman and a man. They live in a house.

Narrator 2: One day the woman makes a Gingerbread Man.

Little Old Woman: Take the man you get!

Little Old Man: I love gingerbread. Good food!

Little Old Woman: Oh, the gingerbread man is gone.

Narrator 1: Out jumps the Gingerbread Man.

Narrator 2: Out of the door he runs.

Narrator 3: The woman and the man run after him.

Little Gingerbread Man: Run, run as fast as you can! You can't catch me, I'm the Gingerbread Man!

Narrator 1: The Little Gingerbread Man sees a cow.

Cow: Stop, Little Gingerbread Man! I want to eat you!

Little Gingerbread Man: I Run, run as fast as you can! You can't catch me, I'm the Gingerbread Man!

Narrator 2: The cow can't catch the Gingerbread Man.

Narrator 3: The Gingerbread Man sees a horse.

Horse: Stop, Little Gingerbread Man! I want to eat you.

Little Gingerbread Man: Run, run as fast as you can! You can't catch me, I'm the Gingerbread Man!

Narrator 1: And the horse can't catch him.

Narrator 2: The Gingerbread Man meets a fox.
