

Homophones and homographs

Some words sound the same as other words. Choose words that sound the same to fill in the gaps in each sentence below.

Remember: A homophone is a word that sounds the same as another word but has a different meaning and is sometimes spelled differently.

For example: I don't know where you are going to wear that hat!

Ben asked if he could come      the match      ,
but we only have      tickets.

They're getting            jackets from the cloakroom over            .

'     '      the owner of this coat – I can't tell            is            !

We can't tell            the            will be dry or wet.

Underline the homographs in the sentence below.

Remember: A homograph is a word that has the same spelling as another word but has a different meaning.

I went to a hockey match one cold Saturday. I wore a striped scarf and hat to match. Afterwards, I watched while Mom put a match to the fire.

In the following sentences, the homographs are underlined. Read each sentence, and then write another sentence that changes the meaning of the homograph.

The old castle had a huge, square park.

.....

I am planning an expedition to the South Pole.

.....

Our dog likes me to throw a stick.

.....

She won a new computer in the prize drawing.

.....

He ground the maize to make flour.

.....