

An Amusing Story

11 In fourth grade, Rob wrote a story called "What If Ants
12 Wore Pants." He even drew illustrations to go with the story.

13 "What a terrific picture book idea, Rob!" declared his 14 teacher, Mr. Yotto. Mr. Yotto gave Rob some gigantic sheets
15 of construction paper to create Rob's book. They began to 16 work immediately. Rob crayoned big pictures for his story,
17 printing his words at the bottom of each page. Mr. Yotto
18 punched holes at the top of each sheet and put rings
19 through the perforations. He then hung the rings on a frame.
20 This way, Rob could flip each page easily.

21 The book turned out so well that Mr. Yotto asked
22 Rob to read his story to the kindergarten class. He made
23 arrangements with Ms. Lisberg, the kindergarten teacher.
24 The next day, Rob and Mr. Yotto shared their big book
25 with Ms. Lisberg's class. Rob flipped each page and read
26 the story aloud as the children chuckled at every page.
27 They adored the goofy pictures of llamas in pajamas
28 and buffaloes in ski clothes.

29 Rob never felt as proud as he did that day. Perhaps
30 Rob would publish a real book someday. 192

1. What is the story mostly about?
2. How did the young children react to Rob's book?