

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ruby Bridges

Directions: Read the mixed up sentences below. Number them in chronological order, as they would appear in a paragraph.

_____ Ruby took a test to see if she was eligible to attend William Frank Elementary School.

_____ She still lives in New Orleans with her husband and their four sons, and is chair of the Ruby Bridges Foundation.

_____ Ruby became friends with her teacher, Mrs. Henry.

_____ Her father lost his job and the grocery store the family shopped at would no longer let them shop there.

_____ On the first day of school, federal marshals drove Ruby and her mother the five blocks to her new school.

_____ Ruby passed the test along with three other African American girls.

_____ One mother couldn't stand her troublesome boys at home any longer and felt they were losing out on their education staying home. She sent them back to school.

_____ Parents stood outside the school in an angry mob protesting against integration. They also kept their children home from school.