

Name _____

Date _____ Per. _____

Independent Reading Response Essay: Rubric

(Due on or before the 15th of each month beginning in October)

Assignment: Using notes taken as you read (independently) a fiction novel, respond analytically to one of the prompts about literary elements/devices/or theme from the handout "Independent Reading Response and Analysis Essay." MLA parenthetical format is required. Suggested length: two pages, typed, double-spaced, size 10-12 font or two pages handwritten (dark blue/black ink). Staple this page as a cover sheet.

For 6+1 traits rubric, writing exceeds /has good/meets/ is fair in /needs work in
Ideas/Content
Author, title, genre, number of pages, and a brief summary (no more than three sentences)
Clear thesis stating response to prompt(s) about literary elements/devices/or theme
Relevant textual evidence from throughout the novel to strongly support thesis statement (at least three)
Organization
Interesting introduction (hook)
Logical sequencing of ideas
Ending reinforces thesis/ gives closure
Voice
Writer's feelings and reactions are clear without use of "I or "you"; no apparent plagiarism
Consistent use of present tense
Word Choice/Sentences
Variety of sentence structure
Skillful transitions within and across paragraphs
Word choice is thoughtful and precise;

TOTAL POINTS: _____ earning a grade of _____ for this assignment.