

verb + preposition (at, about, for, to, with)

Complete the sentences:

1. Look at the picture. Let's see _____ your answer.
2. A: Hey, Sam! Are you thinking of your friend?
B: Yes, I'm now thinking _____ a separation with the university's dean.
3. A: What are you doing?
B: I'm thinking _____ my friend.
B: You're always with your glasses and they are always broken! What?
4. My job prevents them from _____ for the school because the school doesn't pay well for teachers.
5. _____ at the school so the school has to provide a car!
6. Thinking about the new entrance, it makes a family to _____.
7. I usually walk home after school but tonight we will take _____ the bus.
8. A: _____ this class, it's so nice.
B: How much is it?
A: It's only $100.

verb + preposition (at, about, for, to, with)

Complete the sentences:

1. Look at the picture. Let's see _____ your answer.
2. A: Hey, Sam! Are you thinking of your friend?
B: Yes, I'm now thinking _____ a separation with the university's dean.
3. A: What are you doing?
B: I'm thinking _____ my friend.
B: You're always with your glasses and they are always broken! What?
4. My job prevents them from _____ for the school because the school doesn't pay well for teachers.
5. _____ at the school so the school has to provide a car!
6. Thinking about the new entrance, it makes a family to _____.
7. I usually walk home after school but tonight we will take _____ the bus.
8. A: _____ this class, it's so nice.
B: How much is it?
A: It's only $100.