

Present perfect and past simple

Running dictations

Examples

1. Kate has had her hair done. She can't brush anymore.

2. Paul has had his shoulder dislocated three times.

2a

1. The children had finished their homework, but they didn't sleep.

2a

1. He was going and she had left her suitcase behind, too.

2a

1. He's being nice since the accident, maybe he's had a change of heart.

2a

4. Some of you have called me for weeks. How can I possibly help you?

2a

1. Yesterday he had a headache. The others have finished.

2a

8. Robert has bought a new hat, but it's not very nice.

2a

1. The TV set is new. Someone has turned it off.

2a

6. He's never had a headache since he's been young or old.

2a

1. Several banks have gone off their city cards. It has happened all over again.

2a

10. He's been out of the office since he left school.

2a