

Miss made a cake, decorated it, and put candles on it. There are lots of balloons. Children came with presents. Everyone played games. What is going on?	You watch the news. You see a man telling what the weather will be like tomorrow. You watch the channel to watch a cartoon. What are you doing?	The children read the directions. They got out a bowl and pens. They got sugar, flour, and butter in a bowl. They rolled it into balls, and put them in the oven. What are they doing?
The family were really excited. First, they were grateful. Then they went to the fair site. They thought the monkeys were fun to watch. Where is the family?	She cried and cried. She made a poster and offered a reward. She wasn't sure when it had happened. She did not know if it had fallen off or if she had dropped it when she got it on. Why is she crying?	I was very quiet when we entered. There were people at tables. Others stood at tables. We saw many books. What building were you in?
You have to give it plenty of food and water. It needs to go outside and get fresh air and exercise. You need to get it and play with it. What do you have?	The man took them and put one in each. He covered them and returned them every day. Scott is now sprouts and he was able to pick them. What is the man doing?	The boy looked at the cover and read the title. He looked at the pictures and some of the words. He went back to the beginning and began. What is the boy doing?
