

Name _____

Verbs (have, has, and had)

The verb have is irregular. Use "have" or "has" to tell about the present. Use "had" to tell about the past.

Read each sentence carefully. Write have, has, or had to complete the sentences. Then write present or past for each sentence.

1. Jason _____ a lot of homework last night. _____
2. Brenda _____ good food in her kitchen. _____
3. What kind of candy do you _____? _____
4. They _____ a good time at the party yesterday. _____
5. We _____ to go to school today. _____
6. Katie and Kevin _____ fun riding their bikes. _____
7. Shelly _____ a new backpack. _____
8. The dogs _____ to stay in the yard. _____
9. Joe _____ a green shirt on. _____
10. Yesterday, we _____ ice cream. _____