Video and computer games are very popular not only to children but also to adults. Some of the video games include violent, and some people think that kind of games must be banned. In my opinion I do not 100% agree with them.

Australia has many different kind of jobs. This jobs are suitable to everyone such as factory, waiter at restaurants, doctor. So a lot of people come to Australia to find a job and live in Australia.

Secondly, we should change mind ourselves. Because some people have luxury car but I see taxi, like this we must forget them as I think we should take the campaign for using bicycle or transport vehicle.

In conclusion, Australia is successful as a multicultural nation because Australia has lots of other country people, Australian are kind, Australia has wonderful education system for study English.

Also, reality TV programmes always bring people who is not a superior to a competition. For example American Idol brought many young people go to competition, a producer of reality TV programs take an advantage from this because if they bring the superior go to competition it is not new, but if they bring normal people it is new.

But still violence and TV and games gives lot of bad idea and feelings as I think it should be banned and keep away from our society.

Firstly, those have a bad affection that is bad habit for people. People who see a lot of violent movies and drama programs are more likely to be aggressive and sensitive. According to an article on the news paper, after the movie that is too much violent is released.

Next of opinion will that I just copied some movie or games which give me a idea about crime. It can tell us that there are too many bad ways to make money in the violent movies and games, and it can see in the real life.

On the other hand, the media has supplied lots of bad things. Through magazines or advertisements girls want to buy such as pretty clothes, shoes, and a variety of accessories. Because of the parents are always hardworking. It is easy for them to spend money on other people's things to be satisfied with their mind, as there are many teenager crime all around the world.
