

ARTICULATING QUESTIONS

Cut the strips from the bottom of this handout. Classify each quote from the two adjacent columns. Place additional examples of each genre.

Old Man	Old Man	Old Man
Sustained	Intermittent	Anecdotal

This is an old man's character description through	There is a lot of description of the man.	It appears that something is in the air.	The narrator does not really define the man.
The old man's character is defined.	The old man's character is defined through direct and indirect evidence.	There is a mysterious element part of the narrative from the old man's perspective.	The old man's character is defined through direct and indirect evidence.
The old man's character is defined through direct and indirect evidence.	The old man's character is defined through direct and indirect evidence.	The old man's character is defined through direct and indirect evidence.	The old man's character is defined through direct and indirect evidence.