

1911. The first step was the organization of the various departments of the State. The second step was the organization of the various departments of the State. The third step was the organization of the various departments of the State. The fourth step was the organization of the various departments of the State. The fifth step was the organization of the various departments of the State. The sixth step was the organization of the various departments of the State. The seventh step was the organization of the various departments of the State. The eighth step was the organization of the various departments of the State. The ninth step was the organization of the various departments of the State. The tenth step was the organization of the various departments of the State.