

Simile Practice

Figurative language includes special forms that writers use to help readers make a strong connection to their words. A simile is one kind of figurative language. It makes a comparison of two unlike things using the words "like" or "as".

Write similes about the subjects listed below. Remember to make a connection using "like" or "as".

1. The old chair
 _____ The old chair was as shaky as a newborn horse trying to stand up.
