

Hooked!

Write the letter of the type of conflict described. Then, beginning at Start, color your answers in order through the maze to discover which fish you've hooked.

- ___ 1. The kids huddled in the corner of the tent. They tried to keep dry despite the rain leaking through the roof.
- ___ 2. James glared at his friend because she was not doing her share of the work.
- ___ 3. Karen left food out for the bears even though the camp rules said not to.
- ___ 4. Blake muttered to himself, "I can do this! I just need to finish gathering firewood, and then I can go fishing with my friends."
- ___ 5. "I am the worst fisherman in the world," Blake thought.
- ___ 6. Karen tried everything to get rid of the mosquitoes in her tent.
- ___ 7. When James got to the campsite, he was sad to see that people had littered the area with trash.
- ___ 8. Karen and Blake refused to help each other hook worms on the fish hooks.
- ___ 9. The National Park Organization told the campers they could not camp too close to the water.
- ___ 10. James and Blake held a contest to see who could eat the most s'mores.
- ___ 11. Karen was afraid to sleep outdoors.
- ___ 12. Bailey really wanted to make new friends at Camp Fishalet, but she was very quiet.

A	=	man	versus	man
B	=	man	versus	nature
C	=	man	versus	society
D	=	man	versus	self

