

Paragraphs Writing

What is the topic sentence?

The topic sentence is the first sentence in a paragraph.

What does it do?

It introduces the main idea of the paragraph.

How do I write one?

Summarize the main idea of your paragraph. Include in the reader what your paragraph will be about.

What are supporting sentences?

They come after the topic sentence, moving up the topic of a paragraph.

What do they do?

They give details to describe and support the subject of the paragraph.

How do I write them?

You should give supporting facts, details, and examples.

What is the closing sentence?

The closing sentence is the last sentence of a paragraph.

What does it do?

It restates the main idea of your paragraph.

How do I write one?

Restate the main idea of the paragraph using different words.

Example

There are three reasons why Canada is one of the best countries in the world. First, Canada has an excellent health system. All citizens have access to medical services at a reasonable price (cost). Canada has a high standard of education. Students are taught by well-trained teachers and are encouraged to continue studying at university. Finally, Canada's cities are clean and efficient. Vancouver, Calgary, and other major cities and use of space to create a low-level sound. Therefore, a desirable place to live.

Discover the topic sentence, supporting sentences and closing sentence.

Every family needs to plan its future well. First of all, everybody ought to family meeting. At the beginning of the meeting, you need to talk about a five-year plan. Then, you will need to draw a big enough table that will fit in front of the house. Arguments should arise, but you can solve them. Next, your family must also decide where to meet when you live left the house. Finally, your whole family must practice this "family meeting."

Let's write!

1. Choose a topic.
2. Decide what will be your topic sentence.
3. Write a list of supporting ideas that come to your mind of supporting sentences.
4. Write a first draft. Don't pay attention to mistakes in grammar or punctuation.
5. Read and check for coherence and organization.
6. Rewrite it if necessary.
7. Check for punctuation and grammar.
8. Rewrite it if necessary.
9. Check it again.
10. Hand it in.