

Did you know? Sir Isaac Newton was born on January 4, 1643. He was a leader of the scientific revolution of the 17th century. Newton was a physicist and mathematician who laid the foundations of calculus. He studied planetary motion and is famous for discovering the law of gravity.