

wonderful things that Jesus has to teach me.

Go fishing with a family member.

Learn to play a new song or hymn on the piano or other musical instrument.

Appreciate the season of Advent as I wait to celebrate Jesus' birthday on Christmas.

Participate in the season of Lent as a time that I can get ready to celebrate Jesus' resurrection or rising from the dead.

Wait happily for a new brother or sister to be born.

Start something over again without anger, such as when my younger brother or sister wrecks my model airplane, dollhouse, or project for school.

Finish reading really long book.

Dear Lord,

Thank you for giving me patience so that I don't get angry or
