

The Age of Jackson

Digitized by srujanika@gmail.com

Page 1

1. In the early 1800s the average U.S. citizen felt they were losing the in the government.
 2. This man's victory in the presidential election of 1828 was seen as a victory for the common man.
 3. This state passed the Nullification Act.
 4. This was the other cash crop in the South.
 5. Jackson asked Congress for permission to use the if necessary to enforce the right of Admittance.
 6. The Indian Removal Act authorized the removal of all Native Americans who lived east of this river.
 7. One of this tribe died on the Trail of Tears.
 8. Small groups of this tribe were allowed to remain in Florida.

Digitized by srujanika@gmail.com

3. Andrew Jackson's supporters formed this political party to help him win the election in 1828.
 4. Their economy was based on manufacturing, factories, and trade.
 5. Their economy was based on raising cash crops.
 6. This was one of the main cash crops in the South.
 7. The Tariff of _____ was a tax on imported wooden goods.
 8. This doctrine states that because the states formed the national government they should have more power than the federal government.
 9. Jackson opposed the _____ of the U.S.
 10. In the case of _____ v. Maryland the Supreme Court declared the Bank of the U.S. was constitutional.
 11. Worcester v. _____ said that the states did not have authority over Native American tribes.