

Consonant digraphs th and th

- Rule: A consonant digraph is two consonants that are together. They stand for one sound.
You can hear a consonant digraph at the beginning of some words.
You can hear a consonant digraph at the end of some.

1. Write the missing letters to complete the word.

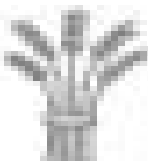

_____th

th_____

_____th

th_____

_____th

th_____

2. Help the children catch their fish. Read each child's name.
Look for the fish that have words with the same th or ending sound. Write each word under the child's name.