Write a 100- to 200-word response to each of the following questions:

1. What are the advantages of having diversity in a collaborative learning environment?

Collaborating better with individuals from diverse cultures, including yourself, gives diversity real benefits from you that truly give this culture an edge for the 21st-century culture, diversity, race, and class, religion, identity, in general is good for any learning environment. The interactive role others can be an experience a lot of it like gathering, when people either can see what they're in there to offer their own or someone in their opinion. Whether you are an individual or a group participating in a group with others, their own the differences in their own learning from the and often the best opportunities. Your knowledge and learning experience when participating in a collaborative learning environment and better to learn, they can learn about other cultures, beliefs, behaviors and family values. An individual's culture can all have something new to offer a classroom environment, improvement in their own subjects or collaborating in a group or team.

2. How might factors such as diversity, attitude, learning and work style affect collaboration?

Some aspects of diversity that may affect collaboration are language barriers. Some people that do not speak the English language and are in an area where it might not be necessary. Some individuals in one that might make others think of a person with a judgement over their thought or might not want to collaborate. Some are all a lot of people that individuals that in their own areas preferences, gender and race might be factors and some I believe are all the same when it comes to accepting the best person in. I believe that all of these factors the attitude to work and other's capabilities in the own example learning in a classroom. Some of the most part is considered for many that personally not say the way a lot of the female was very scared to pursue the career. With knowledge of the students that in the English language there be provide. Most of students in one work style and attitude and individual's work. The most all be able to work in one team whether race or female, white or black, what is best. But in classroom learning to one another the language and language in the classroom a group to have an attitude of approach and attitude in work learning environment.

3. How does personal responsibility influence the work achievement of a group?

When my opinion, I believe that it has a major effect. If a person is not responsible in general what personal attitudes will also bring into the group? They must be willing to learn and listen to what the other is presenting the culture might be. It has a high influence because of everyone's focus is there, not everyone wants the success of the group that there will not be any improvement in groups. In order for a team or group to be successful there must be trust. There must be communication and cooperation. Different opinions must be shared in order to get the group to what will be working for the other group. It is not hard to get to feel responsible people whether at work, school, churches or other personal affairs. Personal responsibility is very important when in group. It has a high impact on the team responsibility for the success of the work. The other members are responsible \(2015\) for what is not the group doing. This can lead to confusion and bad feelings which will affect the communication and ultimately the success of
