

4. Read the passage carefully.

...and the children are ordered to kneel as the mother and father do and the girl is crying, toward the father looking with his grandmothers and the other family members. He often has his mother's face in his memory. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old.

...and the children are ordered to kneel as the mother and father do and the girl is crying, toward the father looking with his grandmothers and the other family members. He often has his mother's face in his memory. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old.

...and the children are ordered to kneel as the mother and father do and the girl is crying, toward the father looking with his grandmothers and the other family members. He often has his mother's face in his memory. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old. He is a young man, but his mother and father are old.

Answer in short (1-2 lines)

1. Where does the boy spend the summer holidays?
2. Does the boy like to participate in summer holidays?
3. What do the boy and his siblings do when they are?
4. What do they and his family do when they are?
5. Why do they and his family don't go to participate in summer holidays?
6. What does both the mother parents and the father when they go to the museum?
7. What do they do when they are in the museum?
8. Where do you and your family go to participate?

4. Complete with the correct form of the present continuous and a relative pronoun from the box.

is	are	isn't	aren't	who	which	that
----	-----	-------	--------	-----	-------	------

The boy _____ to the museum.