

Coordinators & Adverbial Conjunctions worksheet.

Print this page, complete the exercise and turn in for Style points (5)

Part I:

Each of the sentences below is a run on sentence. Correct the problems by inserting one of the following into the appropriate spot. Use ONLY these words:

and	but	yet	so
or	nor	for	plus
however	consequently	therefore	nevertheless also	besides	certainly	finally
furthermore	moreover	hence	indeed
likewise	meanwhile	otherwise	thus

1. Most Americans refuse to give up unhealthy habits, our medical costs are higher than those of many other countries.
2. She wanted to go to the beach, she had to go to work.
3. Tom was the biggest jerk in town, no one wanted to talk to him.
4. The thunderstorm is getting closer, the weather report warned that winds would be very high.
5. I bought a convertible, I've been looking forward to summer.
6. James is the peace-maker in the family, he'll find a way to resolve the dispute.
7. Julie went to college out east, she loved every minute.
8. You know he will take it personally, don't criticize his choice.