

Subjects and Predicates: What's Missing?

Directions: Read each sentence below. If it is a complete sentence that includes both a subject and predicate, write complete inside the pencil. If the sentence is incomplete, write what's missing (subject or predicate) inside the pencil.

1. The weather cools down in the fall.
2. Girls and boys go back to school.
3. All of my wonderful fourth grade teachers.
4. Reads chapter books.
5. Mrs. McMillrough gives lots of homework!
6. My best friend Jasmine.
7. Writing is the best subject!
8. I better study my spelling words!
9. Spelling.
10. Can sweetness be tricky. 