

Fix the Story With Antonyms

Name: _____

Antonyms are two words that mean the opposite or nearly the opposite of each other.

Read the paragraph below. The numbered words in bold print are the antonyms of the words that should appear there. Fix the story by replacing each bolded word with an antonym that makes more sense in the story. Write the new word on the corresponding numbered line. The first one is done for you.

Felix and Diego were absent on the day of the test. When they left¹ at school the following night², they had to go to a different room to give³ the test. They were calm⁴ because they were not really prepared but decided to give it their worst⁵ try. Felix's pencil mended⁶ twice during the test because he was pressing too softly⁷. He finally took a shallow⁸ breath and calmed up⁹. At the different¹⁰ time, Diego was unoccupied¹¹, carefully reading and then erasing¹² in the bubbles to answer the questions. He started¹³ too quickly to do a poor¹⁴ job of it, so he decided to look recklessly¹⁵ back over each question to make sure he had the incorrect¹⁶ answer. Both girls¹⁷ spent most of the evening¹⁸ until lunch time playing¹⁹ on the test. They were very anxious²⁰ when they were finally able to finish and turn their tests out²¹. They hurried back to their classroom just in time to get their lunch money so they could line up with everyone else to sell²² lunch. They decided to try harder not to be absent on a test day again!
