

10th Grade Reading Enrichment
Pacing Guide

1st Nine Weeks Fall Semester

I. Vocabulary – Units 1-4

Resources: Vocabulary for Achievement: 1st Course

Activities:

1. Introduce unit with pronunciation, definitions, and examples. Complete all exercises: definitions, correct use, sentence completions, related words, reading comprehension, and analogies.
  2. Write original sentences.
- Optional: “Writing Assignment” and “Dictionary Skills” in the student text and “Bonus Puzzles” in TE.

Evaluation:

Test after each unit which includes some of the following: sentence completions, synonyms, related words, and analogies.

QCC Objectives: Core: 6, 9, 12, 15

Reading Enrichment Obj: 26, 27

II. Literature – Greek Mythology

Resources: Myths and Folklore
Edith Hamilton's Mythology (teacher's edition)

1. "Isn't your house	4.	The policeman nodded his head gravely. "I know your father," he said the large green-and-white one?"
	5.	"Oh, yes. With a big snow-apple tree in the yard."
Robert. I'll walk	6.	The policeman again inclined his head. "My duties take me that way, along with you."
and complimentary.	7.	The little boy was enchanted. The policeman's gravity was pleasing
	8.	"That was a bad tumble, young man. Are your knees painful?"
	9.	"Yes, sir, they hurt terribly."
	10.	"Will there be someone at home to fix you up?"
h."	11.	"Oh, yes; my mother. She's always there when I come home for lunch ght, I'd guess?"	12.	"You're lucky, Robert. I didn't have a mother when I was your age. E ved with pride that	13.	"Just six. I almost wasn't old enough to begin the first grade." He glo ad a mother."	14.	"Everybody has a mother to begin with."