

Contractions and Pronouns

A. Write the two words that each contraction stands for.

Example: Can listening to you," he said.

Can listening to you," he said.

1. We're troubled as a great deal.
2. We're scared of him.
3. "You're a good boy," said the teacher.
4. She's a kind woman.
5. "I've found the book I wanted," said Tom.
6. They're game horses.
7. Carl said she'll put the quilt in the quilt.
8. You'd better do this work well.
9. It's been easy working together.
10. We'd like to go back early.

B. Write the contraction of the underlined words.

1. I have always loved gardening.
2. She is reading a story book.
3. You will have to do it yourself.
4. I will take pictures of the mountains.
5. Carl said that she will make the tea.
6. We are going for a picnic today.