

UNIT 10: THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

Name: _____

1. The American Revolution 1.1. The American Revolution was a war fought between the thirteen original colonies and Great Britain from 1775 to 1781. 1.2. The main cause of the revolution was the British taxation of the colonies without their consent. 1.3. The Declaration of Independence was signed on July 4, 1776, declaring the colonies' independence from Britain. 1.4. The war ended with the British surrender at Yorktown in 1781. 1.5. The result was the creation of the United States of America.	2. The American Civil War 2.1. The American Civil War was fought between the Union (the North) and the Confederacy (the South) from 1861 to 1865. 2.2. The main cause of the war was the issue of slavery. 2.3. The Union was led by Abraham Lincoln, and the Confederacy was led by Jefferson Davis. 2.4. The war ended with the Union's victory and the abolition of slavery. 2.5. The result was the preservation of the Union and the end of slavery in the United States.
3. The American West 3.1. The American West was a region of the United States that was largely unexplored and undeveloped in the early 19th century. 3.2. The westward expansion of the United States was driven by the desire for land and resources. 3.3. The California Gold Rush of 1849 was a major event in the westward expansion. 3.4. The American West was characterized by rugged terrain, diverse cultures, and a spirit of adventure. 3.5. The result was the development of the western United States and the expansion of the nation's territory.	4. The American Industrial Revolution 4.1. The American Industrial Revolution was a period of rapid industrialization that began in the late 18th century and continued through the 19th century. 4.2. The main cause of the industrial revolution was the invention of the steam engine and the cotton gin. 4.3. The industrial revolution led to the growth of factories and the rise of the middle class. 4.4. The result was the transformation of the United States from an agrarian society to an industrial power.
5. The American Civil War (continued) 5.1. The American Civil War was a conflict that resulted in the preservation of the Union and the abolition of slavery. 5.2. The war was fought between the Union (the North) and the Confederacy (the South). 5.3. The Union was led by Abraham Lincoln, and the Confederacy was led by Jefferson Davis. 5.4. The war ended with the Union's victory and the abolition of slavery. 5.5. The result was the preservation of the Union and the end of slavery in the United States.	6. The American West (continued) 6.1. The American West was a region of the United States that was largely unexplored and undeveloped in the early 19th century. 6.2. The westward expansion of the United States was driven by the desire for land and resources. 6.3. The California Gold Rush of 1849 was a major event in the westward expansion. 6.4. The American West was characterized by rugged terrain, diverse cultures, and a spirit of adventure. 6.5. The result was the development of the western United States and the expansion of the nation's territory.
7. The American Industrial Revolution (continued) 7.1. The American Industrial Revolution was a period of rapid industrialization that began in the late 18th century and continued through the 19th century. 7.2. The main cause of the industrial revolution was the invention of the steam engine and the cotton gin. 7.3. The industrial revolution led to the growth of factories and the rise of the middle class. 7.4. The result was the transformation of the United States from an agrarian society to an industrial power.	8. The American Civil War (continued) 8.1. The American Civil War was a conflict that resulted in the preservation of the Union and the abolition of slavery. 8.2. The war was fought between the Union (the North) and the Confederacy (the South). 8.3. The Union was led by Abraham Lincoln, and the Confederacy was led by Jefferson Davis. 8.4. The war ended with the Union's victory and the abolition of slavery. 8.5. The result was the preservation of the Union and the end of slavery in the United States.