

Participial Adjectives

Name: _____

Use the present participle (-ing) to describe how something is.
Use the past participle (-ed) to describe how someone feels.

1. The children were amused by the animals in the zoo.
2. The animals were loved by the children.
3. The action film was exciting.
4. Jason was thrilled by the nature film.
5. Jennifer is impressed by computers.
6. Computers are valued by Jennifer.
7. Jason is an amused person. I'd like to meet him.
8. Jason is interested in history.
9. Some movies are very exciting. They make me sleep.
10. Jason was surprised at the movie.
11. The professor's lecture was a little long. I almost fell asleep.
12. Professor Brown's class was fun last yesterday.
13. I am really excited today.
14. Trying to learn another language can be frustrating sometimes.
15. Working for 12 hours without break is hard for most people.
16. Dilbertson is very tired today because he worked all day.
17. I was really surprised by the news.
18. The movie was very surprised to me.
19. Jack's friends surprised him by going him a surprise birthday party.
20. The birthday party was surprised to Jack.
21. Speaking English all day can be frustrating to students.
22. I get very frustrated by traffic.
23. Traffic is very frustrating to me.
24. Helen was frustrated when she lost her keys.