

Challenges

Underline the paragraph(s) that you find most challenging.

1. Recognize the text's main ideas and the related concepts of the discipline.
2. Understand the text's main ideas and the text's organization, language, and content.
3. Use essential vocabulary words and phrases to understand the text.
4. Analyze the text's main ideas and the text's organization and content.
5. Identify the text's main ideas and the text's organization and content.

Circle the words used by the author in

1. Making with words: the author's main idea.
2. Making with words: the author's main idea.
3. Making with words: the author's main idea.
4. Making with words: the author's main idea.
5. Making with words: the author's main idea.

Underline the words used by the author in the text at least five paragraphs at each paragraph.