

Persuasive Essay Graphic Organizer

Introduction

Paint a picture or tell an anecdotal story that will lead up to the rhetorical question. Choose a very positive or very negative viewpoint.

1.
2.
3.
4.

Write a rhetorical question.

5.

Write the ISSUE STATEMENT.

6.

The Argument Paragraph

Write a topic sentence that states the argument clearly:

1.

Include details of the argument. Use joining the bandwagon and rhetorical questioning here. Perhaps add an example. What does the reader have to gain?

2.
3.
4.

State the opposing view.

5.

State the counter argument to the opposing view.

6. -7.