Name	:
	Singular and Plural Nouns
	A singular noun names one person, place, or thin example: A lizard crawls on top of the rock .

There is only one lizard in the sentence, so the word lizard is a singular noun.

Also, there is only one rock in the sentence, so the word rock is a singular noun too.

A plural noun names more than one person, place, or thing.

example: Two rabbits ran through the trees.

There is more than one rabbit, so the word rabbit is a plural noun.

Also, there is more than one tree, so the word trees is a plural noun too.

Directions: Underline the noun in each sentence below. On the line next to the sentence, tell whether the noun is singular or plural.
