

Hot verbs and (a selection of their) dependent prepositions make

take

get

Add the correct dependent preposition to the 'hot verb' GET to complete the sentence.

1. "Get _____ and out of bed; breakfast is ready!"
2. "Yes, you can get _____ the table; you have finished your lunch".
3. "You better get _____ here as the teacher is coming".
4. He is new, he needs to get _____ the new working conditions.
5. They're best friends and get _____ each other really well.

up on with down from out of used to

Add the correct dependent preposition to the 'hot verb' TAKE to complete the sentence.

1. If it is hot in here, take _____ your jumper.
2. The delayed 1714 flight to Paris will take _____ at 1720 from the runway.
3. I want to take _____ a new hobby, I think I'll try sky diving!
4. My boss wants to take _____ new staff for this project.
5. The mother duck takes _____ her ducklings, keeping the fox away.

off care of
on up

Add the correct dependent preposition to the 'hot verb' MAKE to complete the sentence.

1. I hope you two will make _____ and be friends, it is not good to be angry with each other.
2. The burglar made _____ £1m worth of valuable paintings.
3. This watch is made _____ gold.
4. The cake is made _____ lots of chocolate chips.
5. Paper is made _____ wood.

off with of from up with

A Stockwell 2011