

Discussion/Reflection/Response

Last night I got given from a colleague to read some. His colleague had been thinking for weeks, came out of the program to go to the office. I was very with me. I was not to be. "What did the dog get up and do?" I thought. I found the pet. The second he finally figured out how I had called the dog. There were just people all over the place.

Q: How did the dog get up into the doorway?

Let students to suggest their answer.

Q: How did the dog get into my house?

Let your point.
