

- My real strength is my attention to detail. When I set out to do something, I make sure it gets done, and on time.

- Provide with more details and figures: This makes it easy for the employers to assess you and may make them impressed. For example, instead of just "help increase the sales", you can try "help increase the sales by 24.7% within 3 months....

- Provide sufficient evidence: such as degrees, certificates or presentation attached to your resume.
