

1. Put the verbs in how late into the present.
- He has to leave at (get) there to work.
 - They can't make arrangements without (find) a room.
 - We are looking forward to (visit) you very soon.
 - They eventually (take) some more seats at the time.
 - They don't allow (book) here.
 - He is thinking of (start) his job with (get) to London.
 - After (write) this article you will give up (write).
 - Despite (live) with someone who never says (talk).
 - John's wife (go) to the doctor.
 - Would you mind (get) your car under examination?
2. Put the verbs in how late into the infinitive form if there isn't another.
- How you have (express) 'love'?
 - David (conduct) their signature card.
 - Will you help me (cover) the furniture?
 - He wouldn't let my baby (play) with his gold watch.
 - He is expected (return) in ten days.
 - He made us (wait) for hours.
 - Could you (submit) the new plan?
 - He will be able (understand) my work.
 - It is easy (find) some other means.
 - We don't want anybody (know) that we can't find.
3. Complete these sentences with a gerund or an infinitive.
- "Why are you going out?" "..... (quit) the house"
 - Finally she (play) a chess game.
 - We were surprised (receive) the news.
 - Are you interested in (drive) your own car?
 - When do you want (sit) tonight?
 - (get) up early in the morning.
 - My brother spent his (live).
 - Would you prefer (stay) at home?
 - We can't seem (find) time.
 - I needed help to write (send) my cards.
 - They will use (walk) tonight.
 - John's parents' hair (change) for good.
4. Complete this story with the infinitive or gerund form of the verbs in brackets.
- A trip to Madrid
 John was really looking forward to (go) to Madrid (visit) his cousin, Antonio, his daughter (promise) that parents that it would be an educational experience. They had, of course, forgotten (book) tickets for the weekend going to the Prado. Maria and John had succeeded in (get) their parents to allow them (go). "Where are they?" asked John, who was beginning