

TITLE: ADJECTIVES\ COMPARATIVE AND SUPERLATIVE

GRADE: SECOND SECONDARY

OBJECTIVES: students should be able to know

- 1.The uses of adjectives.
2. form of comparative adjective
3. form of superlative adjective
- 4.how to distinguish between comparative and superlative adjectives

INTRODUCTION :

The teacher says that this lesson is the more easiest one.

:

Warm up

Choose the correct answer:

Ali is a very (noise. , noisy, noisily) boy.

-noisy.

-true, because, the adj comes after the verb to be and before the noun.

Activities:

Activity one:

-Group one : give examples about adjectives.

-Group two: definition of adjective

- Activity two:

-Group one : give examples about comparative adjectives

-Group two: give examples about superlative adjectives

-Evaluation:

-The snake is (longer, more longer, the longest )
than the frog

- longer

- true, because long is a short adj.

-The lion is (dangerouser, more dangerous, the most dangerous)than the cat

- dangerouser

- true, because dangerous is long adj ( more than two syllables)

-The Nile is the (longer, the longest, more long)river in the world.

- the longest

-true, because we compare between more than two things ,so we add est to the short adj.

Homework:

EX.3&4

Teachers: Nazeha wardeh & Faten Hamdoush & Hanaa Othman & Bshra al ateki.