

Name: _____

Compound Subjects

Directions: Combine each set of sentences so that the new sentence contains a compound subject.

1. Apple pie is a yummy dessert. Pumpkin pie is a yummy dessert.
2. Philip plays piano very well. Diane plays piano very well.
3. All last winter it snowed a lot. During this winter it snowed a lot.
4. Mrs. Barton likes to eat pizza. I like to eat pizza, too.
5. Ladybugs are insects you see in spring. Mayflies are seen in spring.

Directions: Rewrite each compound subject sentence into two, separate sentences.

1. Bowling and baseball are my favorite sports.
2. Hot chocolate and chocolate mousse are both on the menu.
3. The heart and the lungs are important organs.
4. Mathematics and Science are interesting subjects.
5. Brushing and flossing are necessary for healthy teeth.