

Direct Objects and Indirect Objects

Name _____

Directions: Underline the subject once. Underline the verb twice. Write D.O. above each direct object. Write I.O. above each indirect object. Some sentences will not have an indirect object.

Direct object – a noun or pronoun that follows an action verb and receives the action from the verb. It answers the questions whom or what after the verb.

Indirect object – a noun or pronoun that precedes the direct object and tells to whom or for whom or to what or for what the action of the verb is done.

1. The doctor gave Sam a vision test.
2. My cousin brought us fresh picked vegetables.
3. Carol made give my mother a bracelet.
4. Sarah's sister made a pitcher of lemonade.
5. Morgan helped her family clean their driveway.
6. Carlos read us the newspaper from Jacksonville, Florida.
7. Susanna showed her father her new gymnastic routine.
8. Billy showed his work to us.
9. The baseball player gave me the autograph.
10. My brother gave the dog a dish of water.
11. I have buried fossils in the canyon walls.
12. Ryan watered the grass during the summer drought.
13. Many visitors help the park's trails.
14. Beth gave Cindy five dollars for the bridge of pencils.
15. People study maps of the park, or the visitor centers.