

Verbs -er suffixes

adore to adore aim to like, to love arrive to arrive, to happen blame to blame
boogie* to move catch to catch chatter to chat chance to chance, to find cheat to cheat for commitment** to begin clash to clash commence to start for consume to spend (money) debate to debate donate to give dream to dream to enquire to enquire enjoy to enjoy
explode to explode
forget to forget grapple to fight grinace** to grinace guide to guide
hurry to hurry
imagine to imagine
join to join leave to leave
manger* to eat
mount to climb

negotiate to negotiate originate to create participate to take part passer to pass, spend (time) perform to perform press to press place to place or put plaque to plaque please to please participate to share, to enjoy regard to watch, to look at relax to relax resist to resist shower to shower telephoner to telephone, to call touch to touch travel to travel traveler to travel visit to visit (a place) wake to wake, to wake wander to wander

*These words keep an -e after the -er in the noun form.
ex. some negotiations, some negotiator

**These words change their 'i' to a 'y' in the noun form.
ex. some grinaces, some commitment