

Contents

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| About This Book                                    | v         |
| About the Author                                   | v         |
| Preface  | xv        |
| Part One: Learning Basic Social Skills      | 1  |
| Chapter 1 Skills to Make a Good Impression  | 3  |
| Skill 1: Making a First Impression          | 6  |
| Instructor Pages                                   | 6         |
| Worksheet 1: What Is a Good Impression?            | 7         |
| Worksheet 2: Your Appearance                       | 8         |
| Worksheet 3: Your Attitude                         | 10        |
| Worksheet 4: Getting Prepared                      | 11        |
| Worksheet 5: Asking Appropriate Questions          | 12        |
| Skill 2: Thinking About My Behavior         | 14 |
| Instructor Pages                                   | 14        |
| Worksheet 6: Picked out of a Crowd                 | 16        |
| Worksheet 7: Ways to Blend In                      | 18        |
| Worksheet 8: Unusual Behaviors                     | 19        |
| Worksheet 9: Behaviors That You Can't Help         | 20        |
| Worksheet 10: Neutral Behavior                     | 21        |
| Skill 3: Getting Rid of Annoying Tendencies | 22 |
| Instructor Pages                                   | 22        |
| Worksheet 11: Invading Personal Space              | 23        |
| Worksheet 12: Interrupting                         | 25        |
| Worksheet 13: Repeating Yourself                   | 27        |
| Worksheet 14: Bodily Noises                        | 28        |
| Worksheet 15: Being Bossy                          | 29        |