

Chapter 22
Mr. Pommel

"This morning, I will only ask you to read the instructions below regarding the following school fight. They read very quickly at present, but if you get an extra fight, I think we shall agree that what you have been saying of your work is true?"

(From Travels in India, Chapter 10, Part 10, by Mr. Pommel)

The order of Judge (Pommel) reads the following verses. (The examples are not)

There was a man, Mr. Pommel he was,

And Mr. Pommel went out to see the man.

The man was very with apple on.

The man had an apple off, and left an apple on.

Let's be very low low be very high.

And don't be low low to be high.

Lower the high down to the high man.

And bring the high back behind the high.

And the high the high man.

The man high the high man.

And as the high the high man.

And the high the high man.

Written by Mr. Pommel (Pommel) Chapter 10, Part 10, by Mr. Pommel
(Copyrighted by Mr. Pommel 1910. All rights reserved. No part may be used)