

A - Read the following dialogue, and then answer this question.

How does Mark spend his weekends?

Mark and his brother are high-school athletes. They play American football together and they love the following conversation:

- Mark: Did you finish what I told you to do yesterday?
 William: No, but I was talking with my friend and I'm getting some things done.
 Mark: Are you planning to get into school?
 William: No, you can't go to school. You have to finish your homework first.
 Mark: Oh, the last thing I do is to finish my homework first.
 William: You have to finish your homework first before you go to school. You can't go to school if you don't finish your homework.
 Mark: You can't go to school if you don't finish your homework.
 William: You can't go to school if you don't finish your homework.
 Mark: You can't go to school if you don't finish your homework.
 William: You can't go to school if you don't finish your homework.
 Mark: You can't go to school if you don't finish your homework.
 William: You can't go to school if you don't finish your homework.

B - Fill in the following table with expressions from the dialogue:

Problems	Solutions	Problems	Solutions
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

C - Match the sentences on the left with their counterparts on the right.

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1. I can't do anything about it.       | a. I really don't know.                        |
| 2. What happens next in the situation? | b. Don't worry about it.                       |
| 3. The situation is something.         | c. The right answer is yes.                    |
| 4. The car's not here.                 | d. The game is really long with a lot of time. |
| 5. How do I know to get here?          | e. What do you see from the perspective of?    |
| 6. The game is really long.            | f. I've already seen it.                       |