

6th Grade Spelling Test Group

8

Name _____

8-10-15 6th grade 2nd y word

Wednesday, 9/10/15

1. line graph

- a diagram that show the frequency of data. An X placed above a number on a number line each time that number occurs in a set of data.
- a relationship between two variables that can be described by a straight line when variable values are plotted on a graph
- a graph that shows change in data over time where some value of time will be on the x-axis.

3. linear relationship

- a relationship between two variables that can be described by a straight line when variable values are plotted on a graph
- a diagram that show the frequency of data. An X placed above a number on a number line each time that number occurs in a set of data.
- the sum of the data, divided by the number of items in the data set.

5. literal vs. figurative meaning

- relates to the meanings of words and phrases or expressions, for example: "She was all ears" has a figurative meaning (she was listening intently) as well as a literal meaning (the ears on her head were larger than normal)
- the ability to read and write
- the art of composition, either written or spoken, intended to bring a specific emotional response through meaning, sound and rhythm

2. line plot

- the side opposite the right angle in the right triangle
- a diagram that show the frequency of data. An X placed above a number on a number line each time that number occurs in a set of data
- a relationship between two variables that can be described by a straight line when variable values are plotted on a graph

4. fluency

- the art of composition, either written or spoken, intended to bring a specific emotional response through meaning, sound and rhythm
- the ability to read and write
- a restatement of a text that expresses the meaning of the original in another form, generally for a clearer and fuller explanation

6. jet stream

- basic unit of heredity
- the ability to read and write
- a high-speed wind generally coming from a western direction