

Make a point

Here is a list of ideas for a piece of writing about travel in towns and cities.

- Improved public transport would make our towns and cities safer places.
- Travel in towns and cities is sometimes slow and difficult.
- Pedestrians and cyclists have to breathe polluted air.
- Public transport reduces air pollution.
- Private cars carry only a few people.
- Buses and trains can carry many people.
- Many towns and cities are too noisy and dirty.
- Cars carrying a few people can cause traffic jams.
- Walking and biking are good exercise.
- Public transport saves fuel.

Sort these points into a logical order by giving each one a number. Then use the points to write one or two paragraphs about travel in towns and cities.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....