

Figurative Language in The Book Thief

Use a quote from the novel (some examples are provided) and interpret it creatively from the image in your mind's eye onto paper. Then, write a half page description of your picture and use this to present your ideas to other students in a small group situation.