

FILM REVIEW WORKSHEET

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

As a film critic, your role is both to make the reader familiar with the content of the movie (without giving away too many secrets) and to honestly communicate your opinion of the film. The questions below will help you organize your thoughts before you write a final draft of your review. Remember to be honest in your opinions, and don't be afraid to inject your feelings into your review. Just DON'T use words such as "I think that" or "I feel that" or "I'm going to talk about", etc.

Title of Film: _____

Year of Release: _____ Rating: _____

1. List the film's major credits.

- a. Director
- b. Producer
- c. Cinematographer
- d. Actors
- e. Costumes
- f. Music
- g. Special Effects
- h. Other

2. Where did you view this film? (theater, video, TV, cable, etc.)

3. Write a short plot (what happens?) summary of the film. Use complete sentences. Use the real names of the characters portrayed in the film, not the actors' names.
